Passage One

A 3-year-old boy who was lost in the woods for two days is now safe at home. But Casey Hathaway told his rescuers that he was not alone in the rainy, freezing cold woods. He said he was with a friend—a bear.

The child went missing on January 22 while playing with friends at his grandmother's house in the southern state of North Carolina. When the other children returned to the house and Casey did not, the family searched the area for almost an hour before calling the police.

16. According to the passage, Casey's missing is a case of ( ).

- A. pure accident
- B. planned kidnap
- C. children's trick
- D. animal attack

Police formed a search and rescue team to look for the young boy in the nearby woods. But two days went by and still—no Casey. The woods of North Carolina are home to many black bears, like this one. It seems one of them helped a little boy while he was lost in the woods. Then on January 24, someone called the police saying they heard a child crying in the woods.

17. The woods are mentioned again and again to indicate that they ( ).

- A. provide good places for children to play in
- B. are home to bears and thus dangerous to children
- C. stand for good environment around Casey' s home
- D. may be the cause of the rainy weather in the area

Police followed up on the information and found Casey at about 9:30 that night. They pulled him out of some briar(荆棘).He was in good health. Police Officer Chip Hughes said that Casey did not say how he was able to survive in the woods for two days in the cold, rainy weather, but that “he did say he had a friend in the woods that was a bear that was with him.”

18. After receiving the call, the police ( ).

- A. appeared indifferent
- B. found Casey immediately
- C. made a quick response
- D. did not know what to do

Police followed up on the information and found Casey at about 9:30 that night. They pulled him out of some briar(荆棘).He was in good health. Police Officer Chip Hughes said that Casey did not say how he was able to survive in the woods for two days in the cold, rainy weather, but that “he did say he had a friend in the woods that was a bear that was with him.”

19. When found in the woods, Casey was ( ).

- A. playing with a bear
- B. badly injured by a bear
- C. hiding in some briar
- D. in good condition

Hundreds of people helped in the search and rescue efforts, including some 600 volunteers, federal police and members of the military. Hughes told reporters that at no point did he think Casey had been kidnapped(绑架).

Doctors at Carolina East Medical Center treated Casey for minor injuries. He was then released to his family on January 25.

20. All the following are mentioned as those helping in the rescue efforts EXCEPT ( ).

- A. reporters
- B. volunteers
- C. federal police
- D. members of the military

Passage 1

It should have been one of the most beautiful days James could ever remember in his life. He went to work as usual in downtown Washington D.C., and everything seemed normal. However, during his 9:00 meeting, something strange happened. The world as he knew changed forever.

At about 9:30, the entire building shook. James and his coworkers all looked around at each other in nervous wonder. Instantly, the sirens (警报) began—police cars, ambulances, fire engines, all speeding by his building which was less than a mile from the Pentagon. The day was September 11, 2001.

21. The described event took place on ____.

- A. September 9, 2011
- B. November 9, 2011
- C. September 11, 2001
- D. November 11, 2001

22. When the event happened, James was ____.

- A. having breakfast
- B. having a meeting
- C. on his way home
- D. on his way to work

Once he found out what happened, James left the building and went out to the streets. Thousands of people were walking through the streets in a haze of disbelief and fear. James looked right and saw the Capitol Building. He looked left and saw the Washington Monument and the White House. No place seemed safe. The subway stopped running and automobile traffic was at a total standstill. There was essentially no way out of the city. In addition, it was difficult to get a working cellphone signal since everyone was trying to make a call at the same time. The bright and beautiful September morning had suddenly and unexpectedly turned into a scene of horror and panic.

James decided that the best thing to do was to walk from all the famous government buildings and monuments and to find someplace safe to sit and wait.

23. Which of the following is TRUE according to the passage?

- A. No one came to the rescue.
- B. It was a cloudy and cold day that day.
- C. James' s office was far away from where the event occurred.
- D. James saw the White House on his left and the Capitol on his right.
